

HueArts: Photo and Story Submissions

Your stories play a key role in painting a picture of New York's BIPOC arts entities. Below, please find prompts to share photos which will be included in the HueArts Brown Paper, as well as optional prompts to share stories.

Please write your name here:

Photo Submission Instructions

Photo Folder

1. Gather as many photos as you would like to share
2. Rename the photos with numbers (1,2,3 etc.)
3. Use the link above to find the folder with your name
4. Upload the photos to your named folder
5. Use the table below to add details to the photo with the corresponding number
 - a. Required: Photographer name
 - b. Optional: Event name, year taken, caption

Types of Photos to submit:

- Candid photos of your organization at work
- Events, performances, or daily programming
- Images which speak to the changes the pandemic caused for you and your staff
- Photos of your staff
- Photos of your space
- Photos of your neighborhood
- Images of cultural richness/ level of engagement, high level of activation

Naming Table

Photo Number	Photographer	Additional Info (Event Name, Year, Caption)
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

Story Submission Instructions (Optional)

Please use the table below to share stories based on short prompts. Feel free to respond to as many prompts as you like. If there is a photo that accompanies your response, write the number of the photo in the number column. Please keep your responses under 500 words.

Prompt	Response	Number
Share a moment when you felt or saw the impact your work had on the communities you work with:
Share a moment that speaks to the resourcefulness or resilience of your organization:
Share a story of a way you have grown and learned during your tenure:
Share the story of how you founded or joined your organization:

Share a story of a challenge caused by a lack of funding or space:
Share what a normal day looks like at your organization:		